

Welcome to the new Cummings McCraney Site

If you are thinking of buying or selling property in the Eastern Upper Peninsula this year ensure your success by choosing Cummings-McCraney Real Estate, the oldest and most respected firm in the Luce County area. Agent experience along with a wealth of area knowledge and extensive marketing and advertising play a huge role in the attainment of sales and client satisfaction. Take a look around our new website where you will find information for buyers, sellers, area information, all MLS listed properties and meet our team. Experience counts...results follow. Let our experience work for you today!